

The Women's Oklahoma Golf Association will select recipients of the annual Player of the Year Awards to recognize the most outstanding female golfers in WOGA events. The Awards will be given to the players who earn the most points in WOGA events through the calendar year. Points will be earned based on the scale outlined below. If there is a tie, WOGA's Executive Committee will determine who will be named the Player of the Year.

The WOGA Player of the Year Awards and eligibility are:

- Player of the Year – Must play in the Championship flight
- Junior Player of the Year – Must play in the Championship flight in State Amateur and Stroke Play, and be eligible to play in the Girls' Junior Championship
- Senior Player of the Year – Must play in the Championship or Presidents flight and be eligible to play in the Senior Championship
- Handicap Player of the Year – Any player not playing in the Championship or Presidents Flight
